

2 John — Worksheet 1: Answer Key

Walking in Truth and Love — marking guide

Use this to mark your own worksheet. For reflection questions, there is no single right answer — check that your response genuinely engages with the passage.

1. What does the writer rejoice over in 2 John 1:4?

Finding some of the children walking in truth, as commanded by the Father.

2. What request is made in 2 John 1:5?

That we love one another — not a new command, but one held from the beginning.

3. How is love defined in 2 John 1:6?

That we walk according to His commandments — love expressed through obedience, not just feeling.

4. Reflection: This letter links love directly to obedience rather than just sentiment. How do you see that connection playing out in your own relationships?

Open, personal reflection.
