1. How does Paul describe his own situation at the time of writing, in 2 Timothy 4:6?

That he is 'ready to be offered,' and the time of his departure is at hand — written near the end of his life.

2. What three statements does Paul make about his life in 2 Timothy 4:7?

'I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.'

3. What does Paul say is laid up for him, in 2 Timothy 4:8?

'A crown of righteousness,' given by the Lord, the righteous judge — and not to him only, but to all who love Christ's appearing.

4. Reflection: Paul writes this near death, with a real sense of peace and completion. What would you want to be able to say honestly about your own life at its end?

Open, personal reflection.
