

Ecclesiastes — Worksheet 2: Answer Key

Remember Your Creator — marking guide

Use this to mark your own worksheet. For reflection questions, there is no single right answer — check that your response genuinely engages with the passage.

1. What simple pleasures does Ecclesiastes 2:24 say are gifts from God's hand?

Eating, drinking, and finding satisfaction in one's work.

2. What instruction opens chapter 12 (Ecclesiastes 12:1)?

'Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth,' before the difficult days of old age come.

3. What is 'the conclusion of the whole matter' according to Ecclesiastes 12:13?

Fear God, and keep His commandments — for this is the whole duty of man.

4. According to Ecclesiastes 12:14, what will God eventually do with every deed?

Bring it into judgement, including every secret thing.

5. Reflection: Ecclesiastes spends most of its length wrestling honestly with life's frustrations before landing on this simple conclusion. Why might that honesty matter?

Open reflection — look for engagement with the value of an honest, searching faith rather than easy answers.
